Western Queensland Alliance of Councils Meeting – Brisbane & Canberra (8 & 9 March 2023)

Cr Bawden informed of his attendance at the Western Queensland Alliance of Councils Meeting held recently. Discussion were held on the following issues:

- Housing, Health, Water, Roads, Disaster Management and Connectivity.
- Mark Bailey the Minister for Transport and Main Roads informed that the TIDS Funding is being reviewed. It is the same bucket of money but more aimed towards the Western Councils. The reason given was because we have our priorities aligned and can actually deliver with a proven track record. Hopefully they can get it over the line as planned regardless of the pushback they will definitely get.
- The trip was to introduce ourselves to the new Parliament and we found everyone surprisingly attentive. Hopefully more Ministers will be present at the next one, though the old saying goes, 'you have to start somewhere' holds true in this case.

Aged Persons Hostel - Normanton

Cr Bawden informed that the organisation looking at taking over the APH will be in town on Monday 3rd April 2023 to check the asset and meet with Council from 5:00pm – 7:00pm. They will also be meeting with other organisations such as Bynoe CACS Ltd during the day. The Mayor will be attending another event out of town that day but other Councillors indicated they would be attending.
